

Side by Side: Dorothea Osborne & Joseph Infantino
Visual Art Mediums: painting, multi-media
Albany, NY

“As a teaching artist I have learned to let go of “refined” processes, ideas, and concepts. Joey has learned compositional concepts such as balance through the use of color, color blending, and the use of transparency in overlapping-using his favored arm and hand to create. We have both learned the meaning of cooperation and communication, the use of mixed media, risk taking, history, architecture, and exposure to sensory learning.”
